

Clarendons named Tier 1 for mid-market corporate M&A and ECM

Tuesday, 22 August 2017

Clarendon Lawyers is very proud to be named by Doyles Guide as a Tier 1 firm for small and mid-market mergers and acquisitions and equity capital markets matters in Victoria for 2017.

The ranking demonstrates our growing reputation as a leading corporate legal advisory firm in Australia, placing us in the same bracket as top tier firms Gilbert + Tobin, Herbert Smith Freehills, MinterEllison and Arnold Bloch Leibler. The firm was also ranked Tier 3 for high value corporate/M&A matters.

We would like to sincerely thank our clients and peers for their ongoing support. We look forward to continuing to execute our vision of becoming Australia's undisputed best specialist corporate law firm.

In addition to the firm's strong ranking, we are also proud to announce that a number of our directors featured prominently in the rankings on an individual basis. These include:

- Tony Symons as 'Preeminent', Robert Feiner as 'Leading' and Alex Bean and Nick Golding as 'Recommended' for small and mid-market corporate/M&A matters.
- Nick Golding as a 'Leading' equity capital markets lawyer.
- Tony Symons and Robert Feiner as 'Recommended' for high value corporate/M&A matters.

Doyles Guide is a highly regarded independent annual review of the leading corporate law firms and lawyers in Victoria.

Managing Director, Tony Symons, commented that: "Our firm was established 10 years ago with a specific focus on mid-market M&A and ECM, so it is particularly pleasing for the firm to be recognised as a Tier 1 firm for this market, and for many of our Directors to be recognised as leading practitioners in this area. We offer a unique and compelling quality, service and value proposition for mid-market clients and transactions, which continues to help us grow our brand and market share."
