Sarah Noble promoted to Senior Associate

Tuesday, 21 February 2017

Clarendon Lawyers is excited to announce the promotion of Sarah Noble to Senior Associate.

Sarah has extensive experience in mergers and acquisitions and all aspects of corporate law. The promotion recognises her expertise in these areas, together with her commitment to achieving outstanding results for our clients, her commercial approach and outstanding commitment to the firm.

Sarah joined the firm in 2014 with a property background. Since that time she has focused on becoming a mergers and acquisitions specialist and is now a highly accomplished M&A lawyer.

Sarah has been a lead team member for a number of clients on their recent M&A transactions which Clarendons has advised on, including Jacobs Engineering, Healthcare Australia, Endota Group and Guardian Storage.

Managing Director Tony Symons commented, "We are thrilled to promote Sarah to the position of Senior Associate. Sarah's promotion recognises her skills and experience in M&A and corporate law. She sets a fantastic example for all our staff and exhibits all the traits that we expect will continue to make her highly valued by our clients and a leader of our firm as she enters the next stage of her career."
