

Robert Feiner

Director

Contact:

T +61 3 8681 4439

M +61 459 239 174

E robert.feiner@

clarendonlawyers.com.au

Robert has extensive experience in negotiated acquisitions and disposals, takeovers and schemes of arrangement, equity capital market transactions, demergers and joint venture and shareholder arrangements. In addition, Robert practises in relation to a range of other general corporate and commercial matters.

Robert joined Clarendon Lawyers in October 2013. Prior to joining Clarendon Lawyers, Robert worked at Herbert Smith Freehills where he was admitted to practice in 2006 and was appointed as a senior associate in July 2010.

In 2011, Robert also completed a 6-month secondment at BHP Billiton in the Group Legal department.

Robert acted on a broad range of matters and industries in his time at Herbert Smith Freehills, including some of the most challenging and innovative transactions in the Australian market. He has also already acted on a number of major transactions at Clarendon Lawyers.

A selection of some of Robert's recent major transactional matters includes:

- Advising on a number of confidential acquisitions and divestments by unlisted medium and small-sized corporate clients and private-equity type firms;
- Advising on a number of confidential co-investment and 'start-up' business ventures;
- Lead Logistics on its joint venture partnership with international freight distributor, Kerry Freight;
- AussieCommerce on its acquisitions of online retailer, brandsExclusive, from APN News and Media Limited and online e-commerce business, DailyDo from its founders;
- Regus on its acquisition of Australian eastern-seaboard serviced-office business, Corporate Executive Offices;
- Vita Group on the sale of certain Australian, New Zealand and Malaysian businesses;
- Careers Australia in relation to the successful off-market takeover bid by Cirrus Business Investments Limited, and the competing takeover bid Crescent Capital;
- Australian Infrastructure Fund's sale of its Australian and European airport assets to the Future Fund;
- Australian Infrastructure Fund on its disposal of interests in Port of Geelong, Port of Portland and Metro Transport;
- Orica on the demerger of DuluxGroup;
- Alinta Energy on its divestment of certain businesses;
- Crosby on its takeover bids for Rey Resources, Indophil Resources and Medusa Mining;
- Hastings Funds Management Limited (a subsidiary of Westpac) on various funds management and trust issues; and
- Bunge on its takeover bid for Tully Sugar.

Robert holds a Bachelor of Laws (Honours) degree and a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) degree from Monash University.